The Alfred Pain Symposium

Conducted by:
The Department of Anaesthesia and Perioperative Medicine, Alfred Hospital, Melbourne, Australia

Registration open

Book Now
Places are filling up fast!!!

Opioids Friends or Foe
Updates on the clinical conundrum

Saturday 27 October 2018
8 am - 3.30 pm

painmedicine.org.au

Target Audience:
Anyone who is interested in Pain Medicine can register for this course.

Sessions:
Reduce your opioid use for Chronic non-malignant pain
- Chronic back pain - Dr Carolyn Arnold
- Non opioid analgesia - Dr Alex Konstantatos

Improve the safety of opioid prescribing for chronic non cancer pain
- Managing opioid medication in the community - Dr Chris Woodgate
- Epidemic of prescription opioid use - Dr Kerry McLaughlin

Challenging behaviours to reduce opioid associated risk
- Opioids and addiction - Ms Megan McKechnie
- Pain related agendas from a psychiatry perspective - Dr Evan Symons

Format:
- Lectures
- Interactive Case based Clinical Discussions

Venue:
Monash University, Central Clinical School, Level 5, The Alfred Centre, 99 Commercial Road, Melbourne, VIC 3004

Cost:
- $220 for Fellows / Consultants
- $160 for Trainee / Nurse / Other

Professional Development:
RACGP
- 40 Category 1 CPD points
ANZCA and RANZCP
- 2 points per hour

Enquiries:
Catherine Pound
https://painmedicine.org.au
med-periopmedicine@monash.edu
03 9903 0321

Registration closes 23 Oct 2018