BACKGROUND

- The Board of The Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Psychiatrists (“RANZCP”) has the power to delegate any or all of its functions, powers or discretions to committees comprising such persons as the Board determines¹.
- The Appeals Committee is an ad hoc committee of the Board convened as required to hear Appeals by individuals who are dissatisfied with a decision of the College².
- This document sets out the rules and regulations regarding the Appeals Committee. It should be read in conjunction with ‘The RANZCP Reinstatement and Appeals Policy’.

1. ROLE

- Responsible directly to the Board, the Committee will hear Appeals by individuals who are dissatisfied with a decision of the College. The Appeals Committee is not bound by the rules of evidence. Subject to the rules of natural justice, it is entitled to consider all relevant information and may invite any person to appear before it, or to provide information.
- The Appeals Committee will be committed to the implementation of reasonable, transparent and accountable decision making.

2. RESPONSIBILITIES

- The Appeals Committee will be responsible for hearing appeals of persons who are dissatisfied with decisions of the College.
- The Appeals Committee must have regard to the rules of natural justice and decide each Appeal on its merits and in accordance with the rules of procedural fairness.
- The Appeals Committee is entitled to conduct its affairs with as little formality as possible, but have full power to regulate its conduct and operation with regard to procedural fairness.
- No decision of the Appeals Committee relating to College policy will be acted on by the Appeals Committee. Nor will any decision by the Appeals Committee be binding on the College except insofar as it is consistent with the delegated powers of the Appeals Committee, or is first submitted to and approved by the Board.
- The Appeals Committee may not, appoint or re-instate a Fellow to the College, elevate an appellant above others in a competitive assessment, or overturn the clinical assessment of a trainee or an International Medical Graduate. In such cases, the Appeals Committee may make recommendations and refer such decisions to the Board.
- The Appeals Committee is responsible for identifying and managing risks associated with its committee, in accordance with the College’s Risk Management Policy, and for reporting high level risks to the Governance and Risk Committee (GRC).

¹ Article 16 of the Constitution

² Article 16.2 of the Constitution
3. REPORTING RELATIONSHIPS

- The casual vacancy appointment shall be for the remainder of the term.
- A person appointed as a casual vacancy shall be eligible for appointment in accordance with this Regulation. For the purposes of this Regulation, the period of time served as a casual vacancy shall not be counted as a period of membership.
6. POWERS
The Committee shall observe any regulations or directions that may from time to time be imposed upon it by the Board.

Pursuant to Article 9.2 of the Constitution –

a) “The Board may delegate any of its powers (other than that of delegation) to Boards or Committees comprising persons appointed by the Board”.

b) “The Board may revoke any delegation of its powers by ordinary resolution”.

7. LIMITATION ON POWERS
Pursuant to Article 16.3 of the Constitution -

a) “The Board shall determine the powers and duties of each Committee (its “Terms of Reference”) and each Committee shall in the exercise of its powers comply with the Regulations and its Terms of Reference”.

b) “Unless specifically provided for in the Regulations or its Terms of Reference, a Committee may not make any determination of policy for the College, but may provide advice to the Board on any area falling within its Terms of Reference to assist the Board or the Executive of Board”.

c) “Each Committee shall make such reports and recommendations to the Board as the Board reasonably requires”.

8. RENUMERATION
- The Chair may be paid an annual “Honorarium” as determined by the Resource Management Committee. The honorarium will be calculated based upon a daily sitting fee per Appeal Hearing and will be reviewed by the Resource Management Committee annually.
- The Committee members are eligible for reimbursement for reasonable out of pocket expenses such as travel, accommodation and other incidental expenses associated with the Appeal Hearing.
- It is the responsibility of the Secretariat to coordinate payments of the Honorarium and reimbursement of all expenses.

9. SECRETARIAT SUPPORT
- The Committee shall be supported by the relevant staff of the College. The Chief Executive Officer shall be Secretary to the Appeals Committee.
- The CEO or delegate(s) will attend the hearing as Secretary to the Appeals Committee and to provide advice on the aspects of College policy, practice and procedures but it is not a member of the Appeals Committee.

10. REVIEW
- Pursuant to Article 16.8 of the Constitution, “The Board shall review the need for each Committee and the members thereof at least every two years”.
- These Regulations shall be reviewed two (2) years from commencement.

11. OPERATION OF THE COMMITTEE
11.1. Meetings
- Hearings of the Appeals Committee will be held in person.
• The Committee may meet for the transaction of business and adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings as it thinks fit, taking into account budget implications. The Committee shall only meet face-to-face as required.
• Other meetings of the Committee may be in person, by telephone or other telecommunications or electronic means at the discretion of the Chair.
• The Chair in conjunction with the Secretary, may convene a meeting of the Committee by written notice to members of the Committee. An agenda shall be circulated in advance of the meeting.

11.2. Notice of Meetings
• At least 24 hours notice of a meeting of the Committee must be given to each Committee member specifying the place, time and date of the meeting.
• Notice may be given in writing, by email, by fax, by telephone or other electronic and appropriate means.

11.3. Chair
• The Chair in conjunction with the Secretary, shall preside at all meetings of the Committee.

11.4. Quorum
• The quorum for the Appeal Hearing is 100% of the Committee membership.
• If at any time the number of members is less than a quorum, the Committee may meet only for discussion purposes.

11.5. Voting
• The Chair shall have full voting rights.
• Decisions arising at a meeting of the Committee shall be only decided by the decision of the Chair.

11.6. Minutes of Meetings
• A written record of all proceedings of Committee meetings shall be kept by the Committee Secretariat.
• Draft minutes of all meetings should be promptly circulated to the Chair for approval prior to circulating to all Committee members.

11.7. Defects in Appointment or Qualification of a Committee Member
• All acts done in good faith by a meeting of the Committee or by any person acting as a Committee member will be valid and effective notwithstanding that it is afterwards discovered that there was some defect in the appointment of that person or that the person was disqualified from acting for any reason.

11.8. Conflict of Interest and Confidentiality
• All people attending a meeting of the Committee must declare any conflicts of interest to the Chair. Once a conflict of interest has been declared, the individual concerned may be excluded from the discussion and/or voting at the discretion of the Chair.
• Each member of the Committee including co-opted members, community members, proxies and observers must sign a Deed of Undertaking Relating to Confidentiality and Conflict of Interest.
• The Deed is valid for the period of time the member is part of the Committee and after they have finished on the Committee, particularly in relation to confidentiality.
• All signed Deeds must be forwarded to the College’s Corporate Governance Officer.

• The Secretariat must develop an annual budget based on the budget process developed by the College in conjunction with the College’s Finance Department.
• The Committee is required to operate in accordance with College Policy and within the budgetary constraints as determined by the Board.
12. MEDIA & AUTHORISED STATEMENTS

- The Appeals Committee may not make any comments in relation to the Appeal Process.
- Pursuant to Articles 9.4.1 and 9.4.2 of the Constitution, “the President or the Board may authorise any Committee or individual to represent the College before any government or governmental body or committee or to make statements or express views on behalf of the College. The authority may be given generally or for a specific situation and may be given on such conditions as the President or the Board thinks fit. Unless duly authorised to do so under this Article, no Member may make any statement or express any view which purports to be a statement or view of the College or as having been made or expressed on behalf of or with the concurrence of the College”.

This policy will be effective from its publication date; such a date will be published on the RANZCP website. All applications received thereafter will be considered under this policy.
