I confirm I wish to withdraw from the:

- RANZCP Fellowship Program
- Certificate of Advanced Training in

TRAINEE DECLARATION

I understand that:

- the withdrawal is effective from the date of the submission of this form to the College and no further training will be accredited to my training record from this date
- my training record will be archived
- I am no longer a member of the RANZCP and do not have access to the members only content on the RANZCP website (applies to trainees only)
- I may apply to re-enter the Fellowship/Certificate program at a later date and would need to follow the formal selection process*.

Reason for withdrawal (optional)

*Re-entry into the Fellowship/Certificate program

- Meet the entry to training prerequisites, submit a formal application to the local training program and attend interviews as required.
- If accepted, make payment of the Re-entry to Training Fee and any arrears (if applicable).
- Previously completed training (as per the training record at the time of withdrawal) will be automatically re-instated if the training was completed within 8 calendar years (or for Scholarly Project or a Certificate Research Project within 10 calendar years), in line with the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) policy.
 - For trainees who withdrew under the 2003 Regulations, training will be re-instated as per the Transition Matrix if the training was completed within 8 calendar years.
- Payment of the RPL fee is not required for re-instatement of previously completed RANZCP training.
- The targeted learning and training review deadlines as specified in the Progression through Training policy and any required targeted learning plans will resume upon re-entry for all training requirements. E.g. If a trainee re-entered training with 24 months FTE on their record, they will have a further 12 months FTE to pass the MCQ Exam before targeted learning is required (deadline: 36 months FTE).
 - For trainees who withdrew under the 2003 Regulations, time will accrue towards targeted learning and training review deadlines from re-entry for all training requirements. E.g. If a trainee re-entered training and was credited with 24 months FTE as per the Transition Matrix, they will have a further 36 months FTE to pass the MCQ Exam before targeted learning is required.
