Psychiatry is extremely rewarding… it is enormously satisfying to observe the positive impact you make on people’s lives.

Be in demand
It is important to me to have a life as well as a career and psychiatry lets you do that.

Effective and evidence-based treatments
We are at the frontier of medical research.

Holistic medicine
The interface of brain and mind is a fascinating area.

Change your scene
Be sought after all over Australia and New Zealand.

Flexible workdays
It is important to me to have a life as well as a career and psychiatry lets you do that.

Spend time with patients
Psychiatry is extremely rewarding… it is enormously satisfying to observe the positive impact you make on people’s lives.

Variety of workplaces
Many psychiatrists split up the working week between 2–3 different settings.
