Complaint form

Discrimination, Bullying and Harassment Complaints Management Procedure

This form can be used to make a complaint to the College arising from the College's Discrimination, Bullying and Harassment Policy. We recommend that you read the Policy, and the accompanying Procedure, before completing and submitting this form.

This form should be used to make a complaint in relation to conduct which occurred in connection with the College's activities. If you are concerned about discrimination, bullying or harassment which has occurred in the workplace, please make a complaint through your employer's human resources department or other appropriate complaint handling body.

We understand that experiencing discrimination, bullying and harassment and making a complaint about such conduct can be a stressful experience. The College will be able to provide you with support through the complaints management process, and ensure that making a complaint about discrimination, bullying or harassment will not result in you experiencing any unfair disadvantage in your association with the College in the future.

Any information provided on this form will be kept confidential unless you consent to its disclosure. It will be managed in accordance with the College's Privacy Policy, which can be found on the College's website.

If you have any queries while completing this form, please contact legalservices@ranzcp.org for information.
