

He aha aku mahi e Tākuta Hauora Hinengaro ai ahau?

1

Me tutuki i ngā akoranga uruuru

- ✓ Registration as a medical practitioner in Australia or New Zealand
- ✓ In New Zealand, hold a current practising
- ✓ At least 24 months (FTE) of general medical training

2

Me tonu i tōu ake rohe

Contact the local RANZCP Training Committee in your preferred training location/s

What's involved?

- ✓ written or online application
- ✓ curriculum vitae
- ✓ referee reports
- ✓ interview/s

3

Uru mai ki ngā whakangūngū hauora hinengaro

- ✓ Be selected to enter the fellowship program
- ✓ Be appointed to a local RANZCP accredited training position
- ✓ Register and enter into a Training Agreement with the RANZCP
- ✓ Pay the associated fees

4

Whakangūngū hei pia hauora hinengaro

See the other side of this card for details of the RANZCP Fellowship Program

5

Whakawhiwhi tūranga ki te RANZCP

Begin working as a consultant psychiatrist

He aha ngā tukanga ki te tonu atu?

Get in touch with the local training contact:
www.ranzcp.org/howtoapply

The Royal Australian &
New Zealand
College of Psychiatrists

Your Health
inMind

The RANZCP Fellowship Program

- Workplace-based assessments (WBAs)
- Entrustable professional activities (EPAs)
- Psychotherapy written case
- Scholarly project
- MCQ exam
- Modified Essay Question Exam
- Critical Essay Question Exam
- Clinical Competency Assessment

TAUMATA 1

Basic level

12 months FTE

Adult psychiatry with 6 months in an acute setting

TAUMATA 2

Proficient level

24 months FTE

6 months consultation-
liaison psychiatry 6 months child and adolescent psychiatry
2x6 month elective runs

TAUMATA 3

Advanced level

24 months FTE

64 elective runs with certificates
of subspecialty
training available

Ētahi atu whakamahuki

www.ranzcp.org/training

Current at April 2018

The Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Psychiatrists has received Australian Government funding under the Specialist Training Program to develop this resource.

The Royal Australian &
New Zealand
College of Psychiatrists

